
SHEREEN MITWALLI

LONDON
SPEAKER
BUREAU

- Egyptian born TV and international events presenter

Topics

- Facilitators

Shereen Mitwalli – Egyptian – Australian born & Raised. Shereen is formally trained in TV & Live Presenting from ‘The Sydney Academy Film & Television’ (Australia) and the ‘New York Film Academy’ (Los Angeles). Shereen’s expertise, professionalism, and charismatic personality are only a few of the traits that have made her the No. 1 choice in the UAE & Middle East region. Renowned businesses & brands have loyally made Shereen their preferred choice for various engagements. Shereen’s versatility enables her to deliver on both lifestyle and business genres. Combined with her ever expanding reach on an international scale, and exceptional networking skills, Shereen brings leverage to any potential client. With strong business acumen, Shereen has an ability to engage with a wide variety of people with her energy, passion and enthusiasm, making her nominated as ‘best personality’ by ahlan for 2012 & 2013 and featured in the ‘HOT 100’ list for 2014.

Established names such as Nicolas Cage, Gerard Butler, Sir Richard Branson, Fabio Cannavaro, Garry Marshall and several members of the Emirati Royal Family have all been interviewed by Shereen on and off camera, adding to her reputation of versatility and professionalism in dealing with different personalities. Shereen is also the founder & CEO of an expansive female community in the Middle East region known as ‘The Female Network’, an online business platform bringing together the women of the Middle East, creating a close-knit community through communication, integration and social media. The community currently reaches in excess of 300,000 people per month and encourages entrepreneurship as well as assisting corporate brands reach the women of the region.